DEGREES AND CERTIFICATES

Theatre Arts: Acting Degree

The Acting degree provides training in the areas of acting, voice, movement, improvisation, and dramatic styles. The course work and theatrical production activities are arranged to provide opportunities for students to develop an appreciation for theatre, to improve in the knowledge and skills necessary for work in the theatrical arts professions, and to transfer to a four-year theatre program.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to:

- recognize standard practices of ensemble playing in a rehearsal/performance environment
- compare and analyze the theories and techniques of acting from a historical perspective
- analyze texts and scripts as they pertain to performance
- demonstrate skill for technical aspects of acting, including physical, vocal, imaginative, analytical and emotional elements
- analyze theatre as a dynamic art form influencing society
- compare and contrast theatrical periods and styles in terms of acting, directing, playwrighting, and technical elements
- analyze the components of a theatrical production
- apply imagination and character analysis to identify and describe the personality and motivations of a given character
- apply technical processes, including lighting, set, costume, and/or stage make-up design, as they pertain to a given dramatic script

Career Opportunities

People with an Acting A.A. degree may go into directing, acting, teaching, and film/television.

Associate Degree Requirements: The Theatre Arts: Acting Associate in Arts (A.A.) Degree may be obtained by completion of the required program, plus general education requirements, plus sufficient electives to meet a 60-unit total. See ARC graduation requirements.
Theatre Arts: Technical Degree

The Technical Theatre degree provides a broad overview of theatre with an emphasis on exploring the technical elements of theatre. Coursework includes stagecraft, lighting, costuming, makeup, sound and puppetry, together with opportunities for practical participation in productions. The program is designed to prepare students for work as technicians and crew, or to transfer to four-year colleges in preparation to be designers.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to:

• assess the influence of theatre as a dynamic art form and a social and cultural force in our society;
• compare theatrical periods and styles in terms of acting, directing, playwriting, and technical elements;
• analyze the components of a theatrical production and the role of technical theatre in the production process.
• evaluate a script, assess production requirements, and develop practical and artistic solutions through scenic, lighting, costume, sound or makeup designs.
• integrate practical information from construction plans.
• demonstrate proficiency in technical production skills.
• evaluate tools, materials, and processes used in technical theatre work.

Career Opportunities

Students with a Technical Theatre A.A. may work in theatre, film, TV or entertainment venues as technicians or designers in the areas of scenery, lighting, sound, properties, costumes, makeup, or stage management.

Theatre Arts A.A. for Transfer Degree

This degree is designed to facilitate successful transfer to baccalaureate theatre or drama degree programs. This degree provides students with the lower division breadth and depth of the field of theatre arts and exposes students to the core principles and practices in the field. It will cover the basics of acting, theatre technology and production, and the historical and modern development of theatre and dramatic literature in the world of entertainment.

This degree provides students with a major that fulfills the general requirements of the California State University for transfer. Students with this degree will receive priority admission with junior status to the CSU system.

The A.A.-T degree in Theatre may be obtained by the completion of 60 transferable units with a minimum of a 2.0 GPA, including (a) the major area described in the Required Program below (earning a C or better in these courses), and (b) either the Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) or the California State University General Education - Breadth Requirements.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to:

- critique and evaluate the role of the theatre arts and its relationship to other parts of society.
- evaluate the historical, artistic, social, and philosophical environments in which theatre exists.
- analyze and critique dramatic literature and performance.
- formulate alternative solutions to theatrical production situations.
- employ audition and performance skills in community, educational, and/or professional theatres.
- develop skills to work as a theatre technician in community, educational, and/or professional theatres.
- demonstrate the ability to work effectively as an ensemble member of a theatre company.
- demonstrate skills that will allow the student to thrive in a baccalaureate level theatre program.

Career Opportunities

People with advanced degrees in Theatre have a broad range of employment opportunities including, but not limited to, acting, directing, design/technology for the theatre, publicity and public relations, teaching, technical theatre, stage management, and box office management. Some of these careers may need additional degrees beyond the Associate level.

Acting Certificate

The Acting certificate provides training in the theories and techniques of acting. The training starts with the basic principles of acting and refines them through theoretic, rehearsal and performance processes. The curriculum is designed to introduce and develop the craft of acting through transferable courses.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to:

- recognize standard practices of ensemble playing in a rehearsal/performance environment
- compare and analyze the theories and techniques of acting from a historical perspective
- analyze texts and scripts as they pertain to performance
- execute skill for technical aspects of acting, including physical, vocal, imaginative, and emotional elements
- apply imagination and character analysis to identify and describe the personality and motivations of a given character

Career Opportunities

Students with an acting certificate may go into acting, directing, film, teaching, and many other careers where presentation and performance are key components.

DEPARTMENT CERTIFICATES

Musical Theatre Certificate
The Musical Theatre certificate synthesizes the performance skills of movement, acting, and singing with the musical theatre script/song. Training starts with the basic principles of musical theatre techniques and refines them through the choreographic, theoretic, and performance processes. The curriculum is designed to introduce and develop the craft of musical theatre through transferable courses.

Student Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to:
- synthesize choreographed movement and blocking skills with optimum singing skills
- interpret a character through a musical theatre song/script/dance
- critique acting, singing, and movement skills in a musical theatre performance
- develop and perform an audition package consisting of a ballad and an up-tempo song
- identify historical eras in the development of American Musical Theatre

Career Opportunities
Students with a Musical Theatre certificate may go into acting or directing careers in musical theatre or may augment careers in education, recreation and arts programs.
